Grand Knight

Summer is over, school is back in session and Christmas is less than four months away! Boy time does march on! Thank you to all who participated in or attended the installation of officers on the 1st. As a council we are blessed to have both a core of active members planning and leading our events, and a corps of members ready to participate and help out. I'm ready for an exciting year!

Where are things headed now? To mention only a few activities - Dave Coyne is actively planning the Tootsie Roll Drive; we are close to deciding when (or if) to have the Bull Roast this year; Rick Seibert is organizing the Christmas Bazaar food; and Stan LaSov is orchestrating the Memorial Mass. There is a lot going on and as always we will need help. Knowing how busy life can be, we may call you to remind you about events and ask for your help.

Council membership is off to a good start thanks to Steve Bouchard and the Squires. We have added six new members from the Squires club who will hopefully remain active at their colleges and in the future. Our next chance to add members is our first degree, scheduled for October 10th. Do you know any potential Knights?!

Chaplain's Report...

Summer is almost over, and it's back to business everywhere. This includes increased activity at the parish and in the council. I hope that all of us are returning to our normal schedules with renewed minds and spirits and that God will give us the wisdom to achieve a proper balance in our time management.

That proper balance must include an important place for our spiritual life. In fact, time for prayer and the awareness of God's presence throughout the day that it makes possible are essential if we are to be able to see things in their proper perspective.

Again this council year, we will be engaged in programs to benefit the less fortunate and to assist the church in fulfilling its mission. We will also be trying to support each other, to encourage the sick and stressed among us, to honor and pray for our deceased brothers, and to build up the council membership.

Let's try to be generous in sharing our gifts and our time. Time given to worthwhile causes is never wasted, and gifts shared with others are gifts well used.

May God continue to bless our council in the coming months, and may all of us truly appreciate the gift of our brother knights and the benefits of the fraternal spirit and sense of community which our membership in the Knights makes possible.

Vivat Jesus! Let's continue to pray for each other.
Fraternally,
Deacon Jim Ryan
Associate Chaplain

PRO LIFE REPORT

COMMENTARY

This past Saturday I had the pleasure of working the Pro Life booth at the Maryland State Fair in Timonium. It was my first time and I wasn't quite sure what to do or expect. I met some great volunteers and did some observing in the beginning but quickly found myself engaged in conversations with so many wonderful Pro-Life supporters from all walks of life and faith. The Pro Life supporters I talked to all seemed to have very unique and touching story's as to why they support the Pro Life movement. Some because they are just against abortion and some, because they or a family member has a handicapped child. There seemed to be a different story behind all of them but the one that really touched me was the lady who spent about half an hour talking to me, blessing God for the beautiful life she has. Not because she is rich, not by any means. Not because she is famous or a predominant figure in society, or she won a cruse. She was telling me about the 12 beautiful children her and her husband have and how much joy they bring to them both. She was blessing God because she was blessed with 12 children and loving every minute of it. The Kicker is that she didn't look a day over 45.

National

Recently Amnesty International took a Pro abortion stand after a long time neutral standing. The U.S. Bishops are urging Amnesty International to reverse their decision. You can join the fight by going to the Maryland Catholic Conference web site and click on the link "Take Action". The web address is mdcathcon.org. This only takes a few minutes and they need our support.

LOCAL

Anyone interested in joining the Respect for life committee here at Sacred Heart may contact Sue Surien at 410-526-4593

Catechism

FOR REFERENCE

Here are a few paragraphs from the Catechism on prayer:

2725 Prayer is both a gift of grace and a determined response on our part. It always presupposes effort. The great figures of prayer of the Old Covenant before Christ, as well as the Mother of God, the saints, and he himself, all teach us this: prayer is a battle. Against whom? Against ourselves and against the wiles of the tempter who does all he can to turn man away from prayer, away from union with God. We pray as we live, because we live as we pray. If we do not want to act habitually according to the Spirit of Christ, neither can we pray habitually in his name. The "spiritual battle" of the Christian's new life is inseparable from the battle of prayer.

2726 In the battle of prayer, we must face in ourselves and around us erroneous notions of prayer. Some people view prayer as a simple psychological activity, others as an effort of concentration to reach a mental void. Still others reduce prayer to ritual words and postures. Many Christians unconsciously regard prayer as an occupation that is incompatible with all the other things they have to do: they "don't have the time." Those who seek God by prayer are quickly discouraged because they do not know that prayer comes also from the Holy Spirit and not from themselves alone.
